WORLD BIPOLAR DAY – MARCH 30, 2024:

World Bipolar Day – March 30, 2024 – celebrating Vincent van Gogh's birthday. He is a famous Dutch painter whose mental disturbances began in his 30s. This year, Bipolar Australia has organised a "Blow Bubbles" program, as they support everyone affected by bipolar disorders; those with the condition, their families and carers. To help eliminate the stigma for over half a million Australians, it is necessary to raise community awareness of Bipolar Disorder – a serious lifelong mental health condition which features pronounced mood swings. You are invited to celebrate with "Bubbles for Bipolar" while spreading the good news that bipolar can be successfully managed. Ask 'open' questions to learn more and understand someone's experiences, so you can support them in the community.

Mary Pianta. Disability Contact Coordinator.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY DEVOTIONS

Divine Mercy Devotions will be celebrated at St Liborius Parish, Eaglehawk on Sunday April 7th with adoration from 2pm, Rosary at 2:15pm, Chaplet of Divine Mercy at 3pm then concluding with Benediction. Confessions will be available throughout.

The Divine Mercy devotions are in response to a series of apparitions received by St Faustina Kowalska about 100 years ago promising an extraordinary outpouring of mercy for a modern world that desperately needs it. In the year 2000 St Faustina was canonised by Pope John Paul II and the Feast of Divine Mercy was established on the Sunday after Easter.

For more information on the Divine Mercy Devotions visit www.thedivinemercy

Prayerful Good Wishes to all our Parishioners for a Blessed and Holy Easter.

FIRST READING Acts of the Apostles 10:34. 37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: ‘You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.’

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 117:1-2. 16-17. 22-23 R v. 24

ICEL

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 5:6-8

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

You must know how even a small amount of yeast is enough to leaven all the dough, so get rid of all the old yeast, and make yourselves into a completely new batch of bread, unleavened as you are meant to be. Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast, then, by getting rid of all the old yeast of evil and wickedness, having only the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION 1 Corinthians 5:7-8

Alleluia, alleluia!
 Christ has become our paschal sacrifice;
 let us feast with joy in the Lord.
 Alleluia!

NEXT SUNDAYS READINGS:
ACTS 4:32-35
1 JOHN 5:1-6
JOHN 20: 19-31

GOSPEL Mark 16:1-7

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark

When the sabbath was over, Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices with which to go and anoint him. And very early in the morning on the first day of the week they went to the tomb, just as the sun was rising.

They had been saying to one another, ‘Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?’ But when they looked they could see that the stone – which was very big – had already been rolled back. On entering the tomb they saw a young man in a white robe seated on the right hand side, and they were struck with amazement. But he said to them, ‘There is no need for alarm. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he has risen, he is not here. See, here is the place where they laid him. But you must go and tell his disciples and Peter, “He is going before you to Galilee; it is there you will see him, just as he told you.”’
